

Inquiry Based Instruction Workshop

For: Ag Science, Science and pre-service science teachers

Presenter: Donna Parker— Donna hails from a small town in southern Ohio. She attended Ohio University and earned a B.S in secondary education and an M.S. in environmental geology. She presently teaches at Dublin Coffman High School in Lewis Center, Ohio where she is co-department chair. Donna teaches IB biology, AP environmental science and biology. She is the sponsor for the environmental club, Science Olympiad team and the envirothon team. In 2000, Donna obtained her National Board certification and recertified in 2010. In addition, she is a Sepup Certified Trainer, Praxis Assessor, and Pathwise Trainer/Mentor.

Sponsored by: The National FFA Organization, Northeast Agricultural Education Foundation, Inc., Dupont, Pioneer, Lab-Aids

Place: Washburn High School

Date: March 23, 2012

Time: 8:00—3:00

Fee: There is no cost for this training, but spaces are limited – registration on first-come, first-served basis!

Focuses: 1. Training in IBI 2. Strengthening/increasing connections between agriculture and science 3. Content Literacy

Actual hands on experience with walk away activities!

Re-certification credits available

Science Teacher, November 2010, Vol. 77, No. 8 has several articles on IBI.

Registration for IBI Workshop

March 23rd at Washburn High School

Name:

District:

Building:

Grade level:

Position:

Phone number :

Email address:

Please email to Linda L. Jones at ljones@msad20.org