

Perkins 2012 Timeline

- December 2010: OVAE guidance issued on FY2011 grant submission
- January 7th -February 21st, 2011: Regional Accountability Specialists (RAS) and states hold initial conversations on FY 2011-2012 (year five) and FY 2012-2013 (year six) performance levels.
(Note: Formal "negotiations" between RASs and states are not held until a state submits its proposed performance levels as part of its FY 2011 submission package by the March 21st deadline. Moreover, a state's performance levels are not approved until a state receives its July 1, 2009, Perkins IV grant awards.)
- February 1, 2011: webinar training session for MDOE provided by OVAE
- February 1 thru March 1, 2011: CTE consultants review FY2012 state plan (no major changes planned)
- OVAE issues allocations for state's FY 2011 Perkins IV grant award. (Note: States are encouraged to use their FY 2010 Perkins IV grant allocations for planning purposes.)
  - As soon as possible, but hopefully no later than the week of February 28th
- Week of March 7, 2011: Each state receives an e-mail notification of the outcome of its Consolidated Annual Report (CAR) review and whether any deficiencies were noted that may lead to a condition being placed on its July 1, 2011, Perkins IV grant awards. (Note: States will have an opportunity, to the extent possible, to correct deficiencies and avoid grant award conditions.)
- March 1, 2011: CTE State Board Sub committee meets to approve FY12 state plan
- March 9, 2011: State Board meeting and approval of Year 4 plan
- March 21, 2011: Maine submits Perkins grant application to OVAE
- March 21 thru June 24, 2011: Regional Accountability Specialists (RAS) and Program Administrative Liaisons (PAL) work with states on any revisions submitted and negotiations of performance levels for years five and six.
