Correspondence

A person who is currently working in the school system who has completed a cfy, has a master degree in education, and has taken several speech related college courses requested that the board review her credentials to determine what is needed to be eligible for licensure. A letter went out accordingly.

Review/Create forms for new rules

The CEU notice was discussed and due to lack of time the Board delegated the revisions to the board clerk with final approval by Kate Silsby. The goal is to mail it out with the new CEU form and application form for a BESPAs number to all licensees by August 1st.

Next month the board will work on the supervisory form for slp assistants and the audit letter.

Miscellaneous

Cheryl Walters shared an email to Mike Towey regarding verbage that she submitted to highlight the rule changes for CEUs for publication in the MSHLA's newsletter.
