Notice to Applicants Regarding Confidentiality of Prescriber Information

Prescription drug information that identifies the prescriber is sometimes used for marketing purposes by carriers, pharmacies, and prescription drug information intermediaries. A new Maine law 2007 Public Law Chapter 460 (<http://janus.state.me.us/legis/ros/lom/LOM123rd/PUBLIC460.asp>) entitled "An Act to Amend the Prescription Privacy Law" now enables authorized prescribers (including Licensed Naturopathic Doctors, Licensed Podiatrists, and Licensed Veterinarians) to file for confidential protection of their prescriber information.

Effective January 1, 2008, carriers, pharmacies, and prescription drug information intermediaries will be prohibited from licensing, using, selling, or exchanging for value, for any marketing purpose, prescription drug information that identifies a prescriber who has filed for confidentiality protection. A prescriber who files for confidential protection will have such protection until he or she revokes that protection. Applicants and licensees who desire this confidentiality protection may file for such protection with the Maine Health Data Organization.

Below is an electronic link to the Maine Health Data Organization website where prescribers may enroll in the confidentiality program: <http://mhdo.maine.gov/imhdo/prescriberoptoutintro.aspx>

For more information regarding the confidentiality program please contact the Maine Health Data Organization at: <http://mhdo.maine.gov/imhdo/index.aspx> or call them at (207)287-6722.

Important Notice to prescribers

The U.S. District Court in Bangor has issued a preliminary injunction which prevents the Attorney General from enforcing this statute. However, the Court has allowed certain non-enforcement aspects of the statute to proceed, including allowing interested health care providers to request that their prescription drug information not be sold or used for marketing purposes by using the registration process on this webpage. In the event you elect to request confidentiality protection, your request will be duly filed, but your prescription drug information will remain subject to marketing by carriers, pharmacies and prescription drug intermediaries unless and until the preliminary injunction of the U.S. District Court is vacated. For further information, you may reference the orders of the U.S. District Court by the following links:
