INSTRUCTIONS

Completed forms must be filed with your cooperative housing corporation along with satisfactory evidence to show exemption eligibility. Your cooperative housing corporation must file for the homestead exemption with the municipal assessor no later than April 1. This form will be included with the cooperative housing corporation's homestead exemption application which must be filed by April 1. Forms filed after April 1 of any year will be applied to the subsequent year tax assessment.

SECTION 1. Check the appropriate box related to each question. You must check all three boxes to qualify for the Maine homestead property tax exemption. If you have moved during the year and owned a homestead in Maine prior to your move, enter the name of the municipality you moved from on line b(1). Your ownership of a homestead must have been continuous for the 12-month period prior to application. If you did not check any all boxes in this section, you do not qualify for the homestead property tax exemption. A person on active duty serving in the Armed Forces of the United States who is permanently stationed at a military or naval post, station or base in this state is deemed to be a permanent Maine resident. A person on active duty serving in the Armed Forces of the United States does not include a member of the National Guard or the Reserves.

SECTION 2. Enter the name of the cooperative housing corporation, the name of the shareholder applying for exemption, the physical location of the home and the shareholder's mailing address.

SECTION 3. This section provides information that may be used to determine if you qualify for an exemption. Please check the appropriate box for each of the statements in this section.

At least one of the owners of the homestead must sign this document. Please file the application with your cooperative housing corporation.

DEFINITIONS

Homestead. "Homestead" means residential real property owned by an individual or individuals and occupied by those individuals as their permanent residence. Residential real property held in a revocable living trust for a beneficiary who occupies the property as his or her permanent residence also qualifies as a homestead.

Permanent residence. "Permanent residence" means that place where an individual has a true, fixed, and permanent home and principal establishment to which the individual, whenever absent, has the intention of returning. An individual may have only one permanent residence at a time and, once a permanent residence is established, that residence is presumed to continue until circumstances indicate otherwise.

Permanent resident. "Permanent resident" means an individual who has established a permanent residence.

A cooperative housing corporation may apply for a homestead exemption to be applied against the valuation of property of the corporation that is occupied by qualifying shareholders. To qualify, the corporation must complete an Application for Maine Homestead Property Tax Exemption for Cooperative Housing Corporations.
