

LAND USE AND ZONING BASIC TRAINING WORKSHOP ANNOUNCEMENT

For February/March 2012

The State Planning Office, Code Enforcement Officer Training and Certification program will sponsor a training workshop on basic Land Use and Zoning. A variety of land use and zoning experts will be presenting these workshop. Issues covered include, but are not limited to; types of regulation, review and permitting, compliance and enforcement, comprehensive planning, various types of zoning, floodplain management, and subdivision law. Registration will begin at 9:00. The session will run from 9:30-3:30. Due to budget restrictions we will not be able to provide food. Please bring coffee and a bag lunch. You will have an hour for lunch if you would like to leave the meeting site for lunch.

Code Enforcement Officers will earn five recertification credits in the area of Land Use. Individuals seeking certification will find the workshop and materials helpful in preparation for the Land Use and Zoning exam.

Please note: This is basic training geared toward new code enforcement officers as well as those preparing to sit for exams. In the new CEO Training and Certification rule a CEO or LPI can only use 6 credits of basic training toward recertification in any specific certification area.

Registration deadline: February 10, 2012
SPACE IS LIMITED!!

Workshops will be held at the following locations:

February 15th – Bangor Parks and Rec Department

March 7th – Rockport TBD

If you are interested in attending this workshop, please complete the registration form and return it to the State Planning Office. Please keep these pages for your records and as a reminder of the training dates. There will be no further confirmation of this training.
