Potential recipient organizations will be identified and examined by the Board of Directors of the Foundation. The Foundation may require written grant proposals from each potential grant recipient. If the Foundation does require a written grant proposal, the grant proposal will specify the purposes for which the grant will be used, the organization's willingness and commitment to abide by any terms applicable to the grant and will document the organization's exempt status. After receipt of the grant funds, the grant recipient may be required to report annually, and submit a final written report, concerning its use of grant funds. The grant proposals may specify the Foundation's right to withhold and/or recover grant funds in case such funds are, or appear to be, misused. Organizations may also submit direct grant-requests to the Foundation online at <https://www.mechanicssavings.com/community/>

Any Submission Deadlines

None

Restrictions and Limitations on Awards

All recipient organizations are required to be Section 501(c)(3) organizations. The Foundation places particular emphasis on Maine-based organizations operating in Androscoggin, Cumberland, and York Counties, and intends to make grants to such organizations for the purposes of developing and improving local communities. Without limitation, the Foundation anticipates making grants to support public education, community recreational activities and facilities, local library services and services benefitting poor and underprivileged populations. The Foundation will restrict the use of any grants made to a grantee organization to further the charitable purpose of the Foundation. All grants will be subject to periodic reports from the grantee organization to the Foundation detailing the manner in which granted funds have been expended.
