

EXHIBIT 1

The investigation into this matter is ongoing, and this notice will be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, The Burton Corporation (“Burton”) does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law, the applicability of the Maine data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On or about February 11, 2023, Burton experienced a disruption to certain computer systems following a sophisticated cyber-attack. Burton quickly launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the activity, working with industry-leading computer forensics specialists to determine what happened and what information may have been affected. The investigation identified a limited number of files and folders as potentially accessed or taken by an unknown actor. Burton commenced a thorough review to determine whether sensitive information was present in the impacted files and folders. On March 9, 2023, it was determined that some information related to Maine residents was present in the files and folders that may have been accessed or taken.

Burton collects data from The Chill Foundation (“Chill”), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that is located on Burton’s campus at 180 Queen City Park Road, Burlington, Vermont 05401. The investigation determined that personal information related to current or former employees of Chill was also potentially accessed or taken by an unknown actor. Burton notified Chill of this event and is notifying Chill employees if it determined that their personal information was impacted.

While the information varies for each individual, the information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name, date of birth, Social Security number, driver’s license number or state-issued identification number, passport number, and financial account information.

Notice to Maine Residents

On or about March 27, 2023, Burton began providing written notice of this incident to seven (7) Maine residents. Six (6) Maine residents are current or former employees of Burton, and one (1) Maine resident is a current or former employee of Chill. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A. Burton’s investigation into this event is ongoing. Burton may supplement this notification if it is determined that a significant number of additional Maine residents were impacted by this event.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Burton moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Burton systems, and reset relevant account passwords. Burton also began reviewing the contents of impacted systems to determine whether they contained personal information in order to identify potentially affected individuals. Further, Burton notified federal law enforcement regarding the event. Burton is also working to implement additional safeguards and training to its employees and is reviewing existing policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of a similar future incident. Burton is providing access to credit monitoring services for one (1) year, through Experian, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals. Burton is also notifying relevant state regulators, as required.

Additionally, Burton is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. Burton is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one’s credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

NOTICE OF [Extra2]

Dear Sample A. Sample:

The Burton Corporation (“Burton”) writes to inform you of an incident that may affect the security of some of your information. This notice provides information about the incident, our response, and resources available to you to help protect your information from possible misuse, should you feel it necessary to do so.

What Happened? On February 11, 2023, Burton discovered suspicious activity impacting the operability of certain systems. We quickly launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of the activity, working with industry-leading computer forensics specialists to determine what happened and what information may have been affected. The investigation identified a limited number of files and folders as potentially accessed or taken by an unknown actor. We commenced a thorough review to determine whether sensitive information was present in the impacted files and folders. On March 9, 2023, it was determined that some of your information was present in the files and folders that may have been accessed or taken.

What Information Was Involved? Burton is notifying you out of an abundance of caution because information related to you was identified in the files that were potentially accessed or taken by an unknown actor. The information related to you that was potentially accessible may include your name, date of birth, Social Security number, driver’s license number or state-issued identification number, passport number, and financial account information. To date, Burton has not received any reports of actual or attempted misuse of your information.

What We Are Doing. We take this incident and the security of personal information in our care seriously. Upon learning of this incident, we moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of relevant systems, and reset relevant account passwords. We are also reviewing the contents of the impacted systems to determine whether they contained personal information, reviewing internal systems to identify contact information for purposes of providing notice to potentially affected individuals, and notifying potentially affected individuals. As part of our ongoing commitment to the security of information, we are also reviewing existing policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of a similar future incident. Burton is also notifying relevant state and federal regulators, as required. Finally, we reported this incident to law enforcement, and will participate with any criminal investigation into this matter.

As an added precaution, we are also offering complimentary access to Experian’s® IdentityWorksSM for [Extra3] months. These services include identity theft detection and resolution services.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. You may also review the information contained in the attached Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information. There, you will also find more information on the identity theft detection and resolution services we are making available to you, and how to enroll.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

You may further educate yourself regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps you can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or your state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. You can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. You have the right to file a police report if you ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, you will likely need to provide some proof that you have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and your state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001; 202-727-3400; and oag.dc.gov.
