RE: Disclosure of information

Dear Name:

Lincoln recently discovered that on May 3, 2024, your personal information was inadvertently included in a document that was emailed to a retirement plan participant with whom you have no association. The document included your name, address, and Social Security number. We take seriously our obligation to protect information. Therefore, we have notified our Corporate Privacy Office and are taking steps to address this situation and prevent a similar occurrence in the future.

While we have absolutely no indication of any improper use of your information, we will provide you with a complimentary one-year membership in the Experian® IdentityWorksSM credit monitoring service to help you detect any possible misuse of your data. Please see the attached information to assist you in enrolling in this service. Please note that your enrollment code will be valid for 60 days from the date of this letter. As always, we recommend that you remain vigilant and review your account statements and credit reports regularly.

We apologize for any inconvenience or concern that this incident may cause you. If you have questions or would like to discuss the contents of this letter, please call the Lincoln Customer Contact Center at 800-341-0441, Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Eastern.

Sincerely,
