Re: Notice of Data Security Incident

Dear <<First Name>> <<Last Name>>:

Fundera, Inc. is writing to inform you of a recent incident involving your personal information.

While we have no indication of any identity theft or fraud as a result of this incident, we want to let you know what happened, our response, and the steps you can take to protect your information.

What Happened. When you apply for a commercial business loan or other line of credit for your business with Fundera, our third-party lending partners are authorized to access your information for the purpose of reviewing and approving your loan application. On January 25, 2024, we became aware of unusual activity related to some of the customers who went through our business loan application process.

Based on our investigation to date, we determined that an unidentified party gained access to and acquired information that was provided to Fundera in connection with the loan process. We promptly conducted a diligent review to determine what personal information may have been accessed.

What Information Was Involved. The personal information involved in this incident may have included your name and one or more of the following: address, phone number, email address, social security number, date of birth, taxpayer identification number/EIN, driver's license or other government identification. The information involved did not include a PIN or other code necessary to access your financial accounts.

What We Are Doing. We value your privacy and sincerely regret any inconvenience this incident may have caused you. Upon discovery of the incident, we immediately disabled access to the information. We also implemented safeguards to augment security controls to reduce the chance of a similar event occurring in the future. Although we have no evidence of identity theft or fraud as a result of the incident, as a precaution, we are offering you 24-months of credit and identity monitoring services at no charge to you. You must enroll by <<Enrollment Deadline>>.

What You Can Do. Please review the enclosed "Steps You Can Take to Protect Your Information" which describes the services we are offering, how to activate them, and provides other details on how to protect yourself. We encourage you to remain vigilant against the potential for identity theft and fraud and to monitor your accounts and credit reports for any suspicious activity.
