Yeshiva University (“Yeshiva”) learned on February 16, 2021 that a vulnerability in Accellion FTA may have resulted in unauthorized access to certain Yeshiva files that were maintained on that platform. Yeshiva used the Accellion FTA to provide a secure platform for file storage and transfer. Upon learning of the potential unauthorized access, Yeshiva discontinued its use of the Accellion FTA and launched an investigation.

Through its investigation, Yeshiva learned that unauthorized parties exploited the vulnerability on the Accellion FTA and gained access to the platform between December 21, 2020 and December 23, 2020. As a result, the unauthorized party accessed or acquired certain Yeshiva files that were stored on the platform. On April 6, 2021, Yeshiva determined that one or more of the files contained seven Maine residents’ name and one or more of: Social Security number and/or financial account information.

Beginning on April 12, 2021, Yeshiva will mail notification letters via United States Postal Service First-Class mail to seven Maine residents. A copy of the notification letter is enclosed.¹ Yeshiva has established a toll-free, incident response call center to answer questions about the incident from notice letter recipients. Yeshiva is also offering the individuals a complimentary membership to Experian, which include credit monitoring and fraud protection services.

To help prevent something like this from happening in the future, Yeshiva has permanently taken the Accellion FTA offline.

¹ This report does not waive Yeshiva University’s objection that Maine lacks personal jurisdiction over it related to any claims that may arise from this incident.

Dear [REDACTED]:

I am writing to notify you of a data security incident caused by a vulnerability in a file transfer application provided by our third-party vendor, Accellion, Inc., which may have involved some of your information. This letter explains the incident, measures we have taken, and steps you can take in response.

We recently learned that a vulnerability in Accellion's File Transfer Appliance ("Accellion FTA") may have resulted in unauthorized access to certain Yeshiva University files that were maintained on that platform. Yeshiva used the Accellion FTA to provide a secure platform for file storage and transfer. Immediately upon learning of the unauthorized access, we discontinued our use of the Accellion FTA and launched an investigation.

Through our ongoing investigation, we learned that an unauthorized party exploited the vulnerability on the Accellion FTA and gained access to the platform between December 21, 2020 and December 23, 2020. As a result, the unauthorized party accessed or acquired certain Yeshiva files that were stored on the platform. On April 6, 2021, Yeshiva determined that one or more of these files contained your name, Social Security number, and/or financial account information.

We deeply regret any inconvenience or concern this incident may cause you, and we are committed to helping you minimize any possible impact. We recommend that you remain vigilant to the possibility of fraud by reviewing your financial account and payment card statements. We are also offering you a complimentary one-year membership in Experian's IdentityWorksSM. This product helps detect possible misuse of your information and provides you with identity protection support focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. IdentityWorks is free and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. For more information on IdentityWorks, including instructions on how to activate your complimentary one-year membership, as well as some additional steps you can take to protect your information, please see the pages that follow this letter.

To help prevent something like this from happening in the future, we have permanently taken the Accellion FTA offline. If you have any questions, please call our dedicated incident response line at 1-888-264-0082, Monday through Friday from 8am-5pm, Eastern Time.

Sincerely,

 The Identity Theft Insurance is underwritten and administered by American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida, an Assurant company. Please refer to the actual policies for terms, conditions, and exclusions of coverage. Coverage may not be available in all jurisdictions.

ADDITIONAL STEPS YOU CAN TAKE

We remind you it is always advisable to be vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing your account statements and free credit reports for any unauthorized activity. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. Contact information for the three nationwide credit reporting companies is as follows:

- Equifax, PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, www.equifax.com, 1-800-685-1111
- Experian, PO Box 2002, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com, 1-888-397-3742
- TransUnion, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-800-916-8800

If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your state. You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Obtain a copy of the police report in case you are asked to provide copies to creditors to correct your records. Contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:

- Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That's because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they can't see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 2000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com
- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

You'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information.

After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.

You may contact Yeshiva University via U.S. mail at 500 W 185th St, New York, NY 10033 or via telephone at 212-960-5400.

- You have the right to know what is in your file.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information.
- Access to your file is limited.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers.
- You may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report.
- You have a right to place a "security freeze" on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization.
- You may seek damages from violators.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights.
