Re: ELO CPAs & Advisors – Incident Notification

Dear Mr. Frey:

McDonald Hopkins PLC represents ELO CPAs & Advisors (“ELO”). I am writing to provide notification of an incident at ELO that may affect the security of personal information of approximately four (4) residents. ELO’s investigation is ongoing, and this notification will be supplemented with any new or significant facts or findings subsequent to this submission, if any. By providing this notice, ELO does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law or personal jurisdiction.

ELO experienced a security incident that impacted their network on or about March 24, 2023. Upon learning of this issue, ELO immediately contained and secured the threat and commenced a prompt and thorough investigation. As part of the investigation, ELO engaged external cybersecurity professionals experienced in handling these types of incidents to determine the extent of any compromise of the information on the ELO network. Based on the comprehensive investigation, ELO concluded that certain documents and records maintained within their possession were accessed and/or obtained in connection with this incident. Following the extensive manual document review, ELO determined on January 10, 2024 that certain personal information was present in those documents and records. The impacted data includes full name, address, Social Security Number, Date of Birth and bank account information in combination with data that was collected to prepare the impacted individual’s tax return. Not all data elements were impacted for every Maine resident. On January 16, 2024 ELO located the most recent contact information for the impacted individuals.

To date, ELO has been made aware of several reports or incidents of financial fraud as a result of the incident as several impacted individuals had fraudulent tax returns filed upon their behalf. As a result of this and out of an abundance of caution, ELO is providing notice to the affected clients commencing on January 18, 2024 in substantially the same form as the enclosed letter (Attached as Exhibit A). All notified individuals will receive complimentary credit monitoring services. Furthermore, ELO will advise all affected residents to remain vigilant in reviewing financial account statements for fraudulent or irregular activity on a regular basis. ELO will further advise the affected residents about the process for placing a fraud alert and/or security freeze on their credit files and obtaining free credit reports. The affected residents are also being provided with the contact information for the consumer reporting agencies and the Federal Trade Commission.

Protecting the privacy of personal information is a top priority for ELO. ELO remains fully committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information in our possession and have taken many precautions to safeguard it. ELO continually evaluates and modifies practices to enhance the security and privacy of personal information.

Should you have any questions regarding this notification, please contact me at (410) 917 5189 or spollock@mcdonaldhopkins.com. Thank you for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Spencer S. Pollock

Important Information Please Review Carefully

Dear [REDACTED]:

I am writing with important information regarding a recent data security incident that ELO CPAs & Advisors (“ELO”) experienced. The privacy and security of the protected personal information entrusted to us is of the utmost importance to ELO. As such, we wanted to provide you with information about the incident, explain the services we are making available to you, and let you know that we continue to take significant measures to protect your information.

What Happened?

We recently learned that we experienced a security incident on March 24, 2023 where an unauthorized actor was able to access and take certain files from our network.

What We Are Doing.

Upon learning of the issue, we commenced a prompt and thorough investigation. As part of our investigation, we have worked closely with external cybersecurity professionals and notified the FBI and the IRS of the incident. After an investigation and manual review of the impacted data, we discovered on January 10, 2024 that the files that were downloaded by the unauthorized actor contained some of your protected personal information. We want to make you aware of the incident and provide you with steps you can take to protect your information further. Additionally, ELO has reviewed its existing policies and training protocols relating to data protection while enhancing security measures and monitoring tools to mitigate risk and to better prevent similar incidents in the future.

What Information Was Involved?

The data that was downloaded by the unauthorized actor contained some of your protected personal information, including your [REDACTED]

What You Can Do.

- OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION -

1. Placing a Fraud Alert.

Whether or not you choose to use the complimentary credit monitoring services, we recommend that you place an initial 90-day “Fraud Alert” on your credit files, at no charge. A fraud alert tells creditors to contact you personally before they open any new accounts. To place a fraud alert, call any one of the three major credit bureaus at the numbers listed below. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, they will notify the others.

Equifax P.O. Box 105069 Atlanta, GA 30348-5069 https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-reports-services/credit-fraud-alerts/ (800) 525-6285	Experian P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 https://www.experian.com/fraud/center.html (888) 397-3742	TransUnion Fraud Victim Assistance Department P.O. Box 2000 Chester, PA 19016-2000 https://www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts (800) 680-7289

2. Consider Placing a Security Freeze on Your Credit File.

If you are very concerned about becoming a victim of fraud or identity theft, you may request a “security freeze” be placed on your credit file at no cost. A security freeze prohibits, with certain specific exceptions, the consumer reporting agencies from releasing your credit report or any information from it without your express authorization. You may place a security freeze on your credit report by sending a request in writing, by mail, to all three nationwide credit reporting companies. To find out more on how to place a security freeze, you can use the following contact information:

Equifax Security Freeze P.O. Box 105788 Atlanta, GA 30348-5788 https://www.equifax.com/personal/credit-reports-services/credit-freeze/ (888) 298-0045	Experian Security Freeze P.O. Box 9554 Allen, TX 75013 http://experian.com/freeze (888) 397-3742	TransUnion Security Freeze P.O. Box 160 Woodlyn, PA 19094 https://www.transunion.com/credit-freeze (888) 909-8872

In order to place the security freeze, you will need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number, and other personal information. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

If you do place a security freeze prior to enrolling in the credit monitoring service as described above, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring service. After you sign up for the credit monitoring service, you may refreeze your credit file.

3. Obtaining a Free Credit Report.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free credit report every 12 months from each of the above three major nationwide credit reporting companies. Call 1-877-322-8228 or request your free credit reports online at www.annualcreditreport.com. Once you receive your credit reports, review them for discrepancies. Identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. Verify all information is correct. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting company.

4. Additional Helpful Resources.

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you check your credit reports periodically. Checking your credit report periodically can help you spot problems and address them quickly.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call your local law enforcement agency and file a police report. Be sure to obtain a copy of the police report, as many creditors will want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. You may also file a complaint with the FTC by contacting them on the web at www.ftc.gov/idtheft, by phone at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338) or TTY: 1-866-653-4261, or by mail at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible to law enforcement for their investigations. In addition, you may obtain information from the FTC about fraud alerts and security freezes.

You may also reach out to the Social Security Administration to notify them of the impact on your Social Security Number. They may be reached via the telephone by contacting the National 800 Number at 1-800-772-1213 between 8:00 a.m. - 7:00 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday. If you are deaf or hard of hearing and use TTY equipment, you can call the TTY number at 1-800-325-0778.
