By providing this notice, Cross Timbers Health Clinics, Inc. d/b/a AccelHealth (“Accel”) does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maine law, the applicability of the Maine data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On or about December 15, 2021, Accel discovered it could not access certain files on its servers. Upon discovery of the event, Accel immediately launched an investigation with the assistance of third-party computer forensics specialists. The investigation also determined that certain files within Accel’s network could have been subject to unauthorized access between December 9, 2021 and December 15, 2021. Accel then took steps to conduct a review of the files to ensure it identified all individuals with information potentially at risk, as well as to identify contact information for those individuals. That process was completed on January 14, 2022. Although Accel is unaware of any actual or attempted misuse of individuals’ information, Accel is providing notice of this incident to those individuals whose information was potentially impacted.

The information related to Maine residents that could have been subject to unauthorized access were name, mailing address, date of birth, Social Security number, driver’s license number, financial account information, health insurance information, medical record number, and treatment/diagnosis information.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Accel moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Accel systems, and notify potentially affected individuals. Accel implemented additional security measures along with reviewing and enhancing existing policies and procedures to reduce the likelihood of a similar future event. Accel is providing access to credit monitoring services for one year, through IDX, to individuals whose information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
