RE: Disclosure of Information

To the Estate of [Name]:

We are writing to inform you of an incident which may have affected some of your family member's personal information.

Lincoln recently discovered that on November 1, 2023, a Request for Information email, which included [Name]'s personal information, was inadvertently emailed to an individual with whom you have no association. The correspondence included [Name]'s name, date of birth, address, Social Security Number, claim number and medical information including date of death. We take our obligation to protect information seriously. Therefore, we have notified our Corporate Privacy Office and are taking steps to address this situation and prevent a similar occurrence in the future.

While we have absolutely no indication of any improper use of [Name]'s information, please see the enclosed guidance on how to protect any possible misuse of her personal information. We recommend that you remain vigilant and review account statements and credit reports regularly.

We apologize for any inconvenience or concern that this matter may cause you. If you have any questions, please contact 800-423-2765.

Sincerely,

Andrea Chevalier
Manager, Client-Cust Sup & Ops
