NOTICE OF DATA SECURITY INCIDENT

[NAME]
[ADDRESS]
[City] [State] [ZIP]

January 27, 2022

Dear [NAME],

We are writing to make you aware of an incident involving a potential exposure of your personal information. Below you will find details of the incident, steps Perron Insurance Services ("Perron") has taken to protect your information, and measures we are taking to help protect your personal information and prevent similar incidents going forward.

What Happened

On or about October 7, 2021, Perron discovered that an unauthorized individual gained access to one of its email accounts. At this time, we are notifying you out of an abundance of caution. We are not aware of any misuse of your information.

What Information Was Involved

The information contained in the email inbox includes documents gathered as part of normal business operations, primarily associated with documents submitted as part of the insurance underwriting application process. We recently determined in some cases may have included individuals' names plus one or more of the following: Social Security number or driver's license number. Again, there is no indication at this time that any sensitive information was accessed and acquired as a result of this incident.

What We Are Doing

Perron immediately took steps to block the unauthorized access, evaluated security measures to prevent similar attempts in the future, and retained the services of an outside forensic vendor to investigate the incident.

We engaged Experian to provide credit monitoring services at no cost to you. Details of this are below.

What You Can Do

We recommend reviewing the enclosed information outlining steps you can take to protect your information.

As an additional protection, we are providing access to Experian's® IdentityWorksSM identity and credit monitoring service at no cost to you. To activate the service and start monitoring your personal information please follow the steps below:

Perron Insurance Services

Steps You Can Take to Further Protect Your Information

Review Your Account Statements and Notify Law Enforcement of Suspicious Activity

As a precautionary measure, we recommend that you remain vigilant by reviewing your account statements and credit reports closely. If you detect any suspicious activity on an account, you should promptly notify the financial institution or company with which the account is maintained. You also should promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidence of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, your state attorney general, and/or the Federal Trade Commission.

To file a complaint with the FTC, go to www.ftc.gov/idtheft or call 1-877-ID-THEFT (877-438-4338). Complaints filed with the FTC will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, which is a database made available to law enforcement agencies.

Request a Copy of Your Credit Report

You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every 12 months by visiting <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>, calling toll-free 877-322-8228, or by completing an Annual Credit Report Request Form and mailing it to Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA 30348. You can print a copy of the request form at <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/cra/requestformfinal.pdf>. Or you can elect to purchase a copy of your credit report by contacting one of the three national credit reporting agencies. Contact information for the three national credit reporting agencies for the purpose of requesting a copy of your credit report or for general inquiries is provided below:

Equifax

Place a Fraud Alert

You may consider placing a fraud alert on your credit report. An initial fraud alert is free and will stay on your credit file for at least 90 days. The alert informs creditors of possible fraudulent activity within your report and requests that the creditor contact you prior to establishing any accounts in your name. To place a fraud alert on your credit report, contact any of the three credit reporting agencies identified above. Additional information is available at <http://www.annualcreditreport.com>.

Institute a Security Freeze

You may have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to get access to your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. There shall be no charge for a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. Please contact the three major credit reporting companies as specified below to find out more information:

Equifax: P.O. Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com

Experian: P.O. Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com

TransUnion LLC: P.O. Box 2000, Chester, PA, 19022-2000, freeze.transunion.com

You can obtain more information about fraud alerts and credit freezes by contacting the FTC or one of the national credit reporting agencies listed above. The contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:
