

SECTION 22 ODORS

The Project will not produce odors during operations. During construction, activities such as clearing and grubbing, along with emissions from construction equipment, may produce limited odors. These are expected to be short-term and temporary, with no significant impact on the public.