To whom it may concern,

Jefferson wrote in the Declaration of Independence:

"He has erected a multitude of new offices and has sent hither swarms of officers to harass the people and eat out there substance."

The Framers codified their disdain for bureaucrats in Article One of the Constitution by making it clear that all laws come from congress, not bureaucrats.

The Framers further codified this in the tenth amendment, reserving most authority in this country to the states and to the PEOPLE! Not to state bureaucrats.

Simply put, you have no standing in my life, you are an unelected bureaucrat, nothing more.

Back off!
