Importance of Module

Teachers need support in teaching Wabanaki Studies (LD291)

Many learners in Maine are unaware of their Wabanaki neighbors and their culture.

- This module will guide you and your students through learning a bit about all five Wabanaki Nations.
- Even if you have never taught Wabanaki Studies before, you will be able to easily use the module in your classroom!
- These lessons have been reviewed by citizens of Wabanaki Nations
- One goal is for young learners to understand that the Wabanaki were the first people on this land we now call Maine and Wabanaki are living here and now!
